THE INTERNATIONAL CRICKET MATCH.

Respecting the first game a San Francisco correspondent says:

You have, of course, seen the score by which the Californians are said to have beaten the Victorians by eleven runs, but there are circumstances connected with the match which considerably dim the lustre of the victory. In the first place, the Victorians had no choice, the eleven who went to San Francisco were those who had the means to go; in the next place the ground is quite different to that of Beacon Hill, and last though not least, the Californians won the toss for the first innings and played during the warm, genial part of the day, while the Victorians had the cold, dusty afternoon to play in. So much for odds against them. But we have some thing more serious still to notice with reference to the issue of the game. Mr. Howard caught out three of the Californians, though only one was allowed to be out by the umpire, though Mr. Chisholm, one of the other two, like a man, admitted he had been fairly caught out, and the ball from the bat of the other was heard by half the people on the ground, though he was declared "not out." Mr. Tye was put out in a most extraordinary manner. He was decidedly on his ground, but the wicket-keeper knocked his wicket down, and they found it (as well they might) hard to say whether he was run out or stumped out.

We were naturally inclined at first to think there had been partiality; but when, after the game was over, we heard it declared by a Victorian that he was caught out to his own certain knowledge, but declared "not out" we must attribute these errors to the want of sufficiently keen perception on the part of the umpire, who, like the writer, is growing old, and who must needs place to those whose powers of vision and hearing are unimpaired. No effort nor expense was spared by the Californians to insure victory. They sent all the way down to Nevada for their best men.

CALIFORNIA MAIL SUMMARY.

It would appear that the British Columbia Cricketers have, after the unfortunate loss of the first game, been beating "all creation" in the shape of California Cricketers. They lost the first match, as is already known by 11 runs. They played the Pioneer Club and won, having 7 wickets to spare; they played the St. George's Club, and they played the return International match with the California Eleven, beating them by 15 runs. In the match with the St. George's Club the highest two scores were made by J. Wilson and C. E. Pooley, who made 31 and 20 runs respectively. Both men displayed considerable science, and were loudly cheered. J. Barnett made the third best score, and played with great caution and steadiness. The Alta says, "In July or August the California Eleven will go to Victoria and play our visitors the conquering game on their own ground, no matter what may be the result of the match on Friday and Saturday." (The result of the Friday and Saturday's playing was, as is known, victory to our Eleven. Ed. B. C.) The case of the ship Czarowitz, which was seized by the Collector of Customs at the port of Alaska, and ordered to return to San Francisco, came up before the District Court, and, after examination, was dismissed. The vessel will return to her original destination, with her cargo, in a few days. The British Benevolent Society, of San Francisco, held their annual picnic on the 22nd. Amongst those invited as guests were the officers of H. M. Flagship Zealous, and the British Columbia Cricketers. The excursion was to Sancelito. H. M. ship Zealous was to sail, on Saturday last for Peru. The San Francisco papers contain lengthy descriptions of what they term the "huge vessel."

Chief Clerk Mix, of the Indian bureau, was removed to-day, and Waugh, for some time connected with the office, was appointed.

The President was visited to-day by a large number of Senators and others, among them one of Brigham Young's wives, Miss Little, and one of Brigham's sons, and all of the Irish delegation, German veterans, a delegation of Indians and a delegation of colored men from Alexandria also called.

The Senate rejected the nomination of Sanford, Minister to Spain; J. R. Jones, of Belgium; E. N. Roberts, as Register of the Land Office at Marysville.

The further consideration of the San Juan treaty was deferred until December next.

The Senate to-night confirmed all the Indian Agents, mainly Quakers.

MONTREAL, April 23.—Galt's motion for a claim against the United States, for indemnity for damages done by the Fenian invasion, is creating a little stir. It gives a chance for speculation, and will probably result in a rupture between Great Britain and the United States.

Telegram received, states that Secretary Fish has informed the Spanish Minister that the United States will hold the British Government responsible for the seizure of the Mary Lowell.

At a special meeting of the Quebec City Council, the other day, a disturbance took place, which at one time threatened to be serious. Revolvers were drawn, and some blows were exchanged. The Mayor attempted to restore order, but his authority was defied. The Police were finally called, and dispersed the meeting.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—The Tribune says at the city head-quarters of the Cuban patriots a million dollars have been expended in purchasing arms, equipments and stores; 20,000 stand of arms and equipments are ready to be forwarded to their destination on the Cuban coast. Vessels of war are nightly held in this city, and many prominent ex-army and naval officers and volunteers link their fortunes with the Cubans. On Thursday night a company of sixty men and officers was put on board a gunboat and carried to Sandy Point, and thence worked on a vessel for Cuba. Two weeks ago a large steamer was dispatched from this port in ballast, touched near Cape May and took aboard arms, equipments and stores, besides men from Philadelphia and Boston and several Southern patriots.

New York, April 23.—The Herald's London special says, the Post has an article on the Cuban question, which gives currency to the assertion that Grant desires the acquisition of Cuba, in order to divert the attention of Americans from their internal distractions.

hitherto been remarkable for their affectionate bearing towards each other in public, would seize the first moment to fly asunder, is also probable. That not a few would leave their spouses similarly set free, is, we regret to believe, possible. And that a large proportion of the people who thus would rush into new combinations, would in a short time begin to regret them, and to wish for a return of the old state of affairs, we may take for granted.—Temple Bar.
